MINISTER DIDN'T "HIT BACK."

The Rev. H. M. Hancock Put Up No Fight When Assaulted by Chanffeur.

There was no truth in the report sent out on Friday last that the Rev. H. M.

Hancock, paster of the Huntington (L. I.) Methodist Church, had "hit back" when assaulted by George Carbone chauffeur of a car which collided with ar automobile driven by the clergyman. Carbone, after apologizing to the minster for the unprovoked assault, yesterday ac mowledged his responsibility for the collision in a signed statement which contained the admission that he which contained the admission that he had been driving at a dight rate of spend when the collision occurred and that he alone was to blame.

Among those who witnessed the collision, it wish that he assault he made upon the dergyman when the latter hastened to bein him up, were William H. Vail, a member of Mr. Hancock's church, who was in Carbone's cary John Carbone was driving at from 20 to 50 miles in hour, that when Mr. Hancock, in the Christian manner hurrled to aid him, Carbone struck him that Mr. Hancock ded not raise his hands either then or when a moment later, Carbone struck him agair, at the same time calling him an unprintable mans.

Innocent Substitution

When you ask for "Ph.ladelphia" and your dealer hands you some unknown brand, i's purely a case of inn-cent substitution. Some dealers don't realize there is a difference—all cream chee e looks alike except for the brand.

But insist on the gennine with "Philade Iphia" on the label, for this s your gu rantee of purity, freshness and wholesome full-flavored richness. "Philadelphia" is made only from pasteurized whole milk with cream added. Rich in butter fat u protein, it is nourishing as beefsteak—the most economical food ou can buy.
